I am not a theologian! I did not study hermeneutics and homiletics in seminary school. I can't exegete or eisegete text, but I can read! The bible tells me that faith without works is dead! What I've learned is, it will never be your season if you have not plowed. You cannot reap what you have not sown. My experience proves that God will honor your faith by rewarding your hustle. The book Hustle & Faith is a twenty-first century, urban vernacular biography of what God did for me, when I decided to do something for myself.
