This starter pack contains a teacher's guide, six pupil books and a poster pack. It part of a series which examines British and world history and meets the requirements of National Curriculum History at Key Stage 2 and Environmental Studies 5-14, covering all the core study units. The topics provide children with the opportunities to learn about important episodes and developments in the past, from Roman to modern times, develop their sense of chronology, and learn about changes in everyday life over long periods of time. This topic uses colour paintings to reconstruct key places and events in the history of the Aztecs, to show pupils how historians base their work on the surviving evidence.
