Eve is home for the holidays and looking to spend some time with her family. She is from a little town in Michigan and it had been months since she has been home from school in the south. Her first day back, she makes it to a holiday party and finds herself flirting with the man dressed as Santa. She leaves still unsure who the mystery man is, but his eyes were so familiar. If only she could place him.

While Eve might not know who the secret Santa is, Marcus knows exactly who she is. He has been friends with her father for many years. He had always had an attraction for the young woman and when she didn't recognize him at the party and started flirting with him, Marcus was unable to stop himself from taking advantage of the situation. He has a small taste and touch, but it isn't enough. Marcus wants more.

Eve will have to make a choice when she finds out who Santa is. What will she do when she finds out her father's best friend is the naughty Santa that wants to bend her over his knee?
