At a very tender age, Robbie Meyers saw his dad's belligerent side. He saw him fight in bars, get really drunk and high, and disrespectfully treating police officers. Although he didn't spend much of his time with his dad after his parents' divorce, Robbie grew up like him. Later, his addiction to drugs and alcohol turned from bad to worse, and he often found himself in horrible circumstances, like waking up beside dead animals or even running his car over a corpse. He didn't know how it happened, but he knew that his blackouts made him forget what he did. It didn't help that he befriended Chaz and Rock God, his blood brothers, who not only sunk him deeper into his vices, but also led him to a life of crime. Rattled by self-doubt, guilt, and depression, he made some attempts to become sober, but, whenever he failed, he thought of killing himself. It was at these times that fate would somehow reconnect him with Chaz and Rock God. The three of them, together with their newfound friend, Junior, the ever-reliable drug supplier, Chucky Bear, and a guy named Brandon carried out a successful bank heist. Then he met Jessica. Robbie's life of crime, sex, drugs, and alcohol continues...
