Cecily Cumnor is an eighteen-year-old London socialite who has been exiled to a place that she'd only ever heard about in fairytales: Los Angeles.

LA is a city where fame and fortune lie around every corner. Coupled with the fact that she knows no one in this town, her mother, a force to be reckoned with on the LA social scene, has a life of her own that Cecily has to try to fit into.

But girls like Cecily don't look for the spotlight: it finds them. And in no time she's immersed in a world of glitz and glamour where she rubs shoulders with The Jet Set. Cecily surrounds herself with a motley crew: a rags-to-riches southern belle trying to catch her bearings; an offshoot of the Kennedy family; a burnt out pop princess; and the bad-boy-turned-good who just might steal Cecily's heart: movie star Vaughn.

Cecily finds herself dealing with new love, new friends and new rivals.

Poised to be the next big thing in LA society, and always rocking a pair of sexy Christian Louboutins to keep herself statuesque and fabulous, she realizes that maybe the bright lights aren't as bad as she thought they would be.
