It Can't Happen Here: One School Learns from Tragedy Jared Scherz

This is the fictional companion book to Catastrophic School Violence: A New Approach to Prevention (plus workbook). A suburban middle school experiences a traumatic event, launching the school into a desperate struggle to survive. The arrival of an educational consultant throws the school into further disarray, struggling to maintain their stability. What they find, is that letting go of control and embracing change, lead to the school's transformation. Follow key characters such as the school principal, whose resistance to change ignites a powerful growth experience.
