Puzzled to Purpose: Excellence Is Never Achieved by Accident Tasha Hart

It's easy to dismiss your childhood and other life experiences as just that. We like using the phrase, "that's just life" when we don't know what else to attribute to our lack of connection with who and what we really want to be when we grow up. It was in this pondering and puzzling moment of my life that God began to show me piece by piece how connection to my many "just life" experiences really did matter. You were not created by accident, and nor will you find your purpose by accident. It wasn't easy sharing some of the stories of my life, but I truly want someone else to know what God has taken time to let me know. You have to be willing to share pieces of your life and begin the process of connecting. You can go from puzzled to purpose by doing just that.
