Ten of Swords Lynne Carol Austin

An unforeseen event in a run-down motel in Jacksonville, N.C., brings two women together in a way neither ever expected. These women now have to coexist, Bible quoting Eleanor juxtaposed with Tarot-reading Kitty, as both their lives are turned upside down. Kitty's innocence and strength, Eleanor's sincere compassion and bravado, along with a mixed bag of other characters - from a detective whose every word comes from a movie script to a sleazy hotel owner who is helplessly in love with a stripper - all creates a full stage of entertainment on a mission. In Ten of Swords, opening the door to kindness is opening the door to the heart, allowing Kitty to reconnect with her past, bringing her into her future, while helping her master the present.
