This book is a diverse tale of adventure, fantasy and mythology that tackles complex interpersonal relationships and social issues facing teens.

The story is set in 3,500 BC and portrays the Titans as a band of fair-haired marauders who have taken over the Greek island Helios and have built a stronghold on Mt. Olympus. In order to earn a seat on the ruling council, their children must undergo a survival challenge on a deserted outer island. On Mythikas they will learn their strengths and weaknesses and face their greatest fears.
