Whenever Kati thought of her life she always started it with "Once Upon a Time," like the story her mother used to tell her before she fell asleep. In the story, the damsel or the heroine always had a prince who married them, and did wondrous things that helped people live. They were ALWAYS happy and ending. Kati longed for happiness ever since. Who was to know that Kati would grow up so differently?

As she walked through the forest gate, she realized for the first time in her life. As her hand touched around it, she felt a jolt of electricity flow from the floor and tingled through her body. Blinking and shaking her head she turned and bumped into another person. "Are you going to buy that? Snow White?" he said...

★★★ Guaranteed to keep you fulfilled and dripping with satisfaction! ★★★
