Kylie in the City Episode 3

Choosing to follow her dreams and moving to the Big Apple had been a big risk for single Mormon girl, Kylie McKay. Now that she's an actual resident of the City that Never Sleeps, she's found that being Mormon and single so far away from Utah and everything she knows is much more of a challenge than she had anticipated.

As Kylie figures out what is most important to her, she's left to make some big decisions regarding her future and the type of woman she's trying to become; a woman of integrity. But through her misadventures of life and love she discovers being a woman of integrity isn't exactly a cake walk when it comes to feelings of the heart. From stumbling through complications in her recent past with her comically disastrous dating life, to forging a friendship with someone she never thought possible, she comes closer to finding out who she really is and ultimately unmasking her true self.
