The Country Mouse and the City Mouse (Sommer-Time Story Classic Series Book 4) Carl Sommer
City Mouse turns up his nose at the Country Mouse's simple home and plain food. Back at his house in the city, he treats his country cousin to a soft bed, beautiful gardens, and a buffet of delicious things to eat. Country Mouse is greatly impressed with City Mouse's riches until he meets a cat and nearly loses his life in a mousetrap.

City Mouse might have a beautiful home with fancy trappings, but Country Mouse prefers his own home where he has a cozy bed, healthy food, and a safe, peaceful life. Join Country Mouse and City Mouse in this modern-day retelling of a classic Aesop fable, to learn that peace and safety are more valuable than material possessions.
