Louis L'Amour was a popular American author. L'Amour's books, primarily Western fiction, remain very popular, and most have gone through multiple printings. At the time of his death all 101 of his works were in print (86 novels, 14 short-story collections and one full-length work of nonfiction) and he was considered "one of the world's most popular writers". This series was bound handsomely in imitation leather with gold lettering including his signature in gold on the front cover. This is a real asset to your library as it will look very handsome on your shelves.
